

Tiny Art Show

April 15 - May 18

Rules & Guidelines

The Tiny Art Show is back! Unleash your creativity and decorate a small canvas. You are not limited to paint, so use your imagination. Turn in your completed masterpiece May 5 through May 15. Then join us for a Tiny Art Show reception at 2:30 pm on Saturday, May 18! At the reception, you can show off your creation and vote for your favorites.

Guidelines

- All artwork must be on a 3×3 canvas and able to be displayed on an easel or flat against a wall.
- Other than food, all materials are welcome to be used in the creation of your art.
- Artwork and the titles of the artwork must be appropriate for all ages.
- Our suggested 2024 theme is: your favorite book.
- Library staff reserves the right to reject any art that does not follow these guidelines.
- Art must be dropped off at the library by May 15 to be included in the exhibit. If you are using a kit, please bring the included easel to use for display.

Art must be collected from the library between May 18-31.
